Terms and Conditions

- Postal Boxes (Post Office Boxes or PO Boxes) are locked compartments within a Post Office. Convenience Postal Boxes are available for a fee for specified periods. Customers are provided Postal Boxes at no charge when it is their designated primary mode of delivery.
- Appropriate identification is required to obtain a Postal Box.
- All keys are property of Canada Post and must be returned on request. A key deposit may apply to replace lost or damaged keys.
- The Postal Box is to be used only to receive mail items sent through Canada Post approved services. It may not be used as a storage or security compartment or for any other purpose. The Postal Box is not transferable.
- Canada Post and its agents (including, but not limited to authorized dealers) shall not be responsible for any direct, indirect, general, special or consequential damages arising out of or in any way connected to this Agreement regardless of whether such damages are based on contract or tort.
- Please ask your Post Office representative or visit www.canadapost.ca/postalguide for further details including availability, fees, renewals, termination and redirection services.
